

GRSC 491

Agriculture and Food Processing in Turkey

Summer 2015

May 20 - June 5

Applications due by: December 1st, 2014

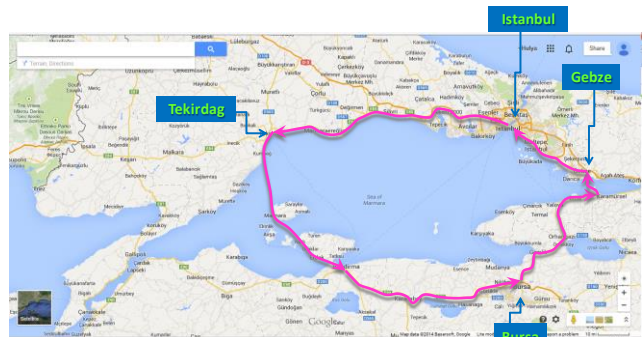

Course Objectives

- To study the fundamentals of agriculture and food processing in Turkey.
- To learn about the university education system
- To obtain a first-hand knowledge of the culture and life-style

Highlights

- Cultural visits to museums, worship places, and palaces in Istanbul with stunning architecture and historical significance: Hagia Sophia, Blue Mosque, Archaeology Museum, Topkapi Palace, Grand Bazaar, Taksim Square, Turkish Hamams, Dolmabahce Palace, Galata Tower, Church of St. Savior in Chora.
- Visit and stay at Namik Kemal University in Tekirdag.
- Visit commercial grain-handling and processing facilities including flour mills, feed mills, commercial bakeries, and various food processing plants.
- Visits to places with cultural and historical significance in Bursa, the first capital city of the Ottoman Empire: Seljuk and the early Ottoman transitional style mosques, old Ottoman houses, Covered Bazaar and adjoining caravanserais.
- Visit and stay at TUBITAK-Marmara Research Center, NSF equivalent of Turkey, in Gebze.

Program fees are estimated to be $3,500 including international air travel, domestic travel, accommodation & most of the meals.

Tuition and fees: Tuition and fees for 1-3 credits, plus any DCE fees.

Anticipated additional expenses: Passport and visa fees; Books and miscellaneous personal expenses.

This course may be used as a specialization elective

More information about the class can be obtained by contacting faculty leader(s):

Dr. Hulya Dogan, Associate Professor
Department of Grain Science
785-532-2628, dogan@ksu.edu

Mr. Dave Krishock, BNEF Instructor
Department of Grain Science
785-532-4065, dak3@ksu.edu

Mr. Huseyin Dogan, Instructor
Department of Grain Science
785-532-5321, hdogan@ksu.edu

Information on study abroad programs, scholarships and other details can be obtained through the K-State Study Abroad Office:

K-State Faculty-Led Study Abroad <http://ksu.edu/studyabroad/facultyled> 304 Fairchild Hall

